

Debate Document

K. Ericson

February 24, 2022

Öppna Skolplattformen

M. Burgess, “These parents built a school app. then the city called the cops,” online, November 2021, <https://www.wired.com/story/sweden-stockholm-school-app-open-source/>.

City did not have a viable alternative to the Open School Platform, yet still was angry at the parents for having their own usable version. ”The police report, shared with WIRED by Landgren, references the Certezza security review, which was commissioned by the city and completed on February 17, 2021. The review concluded that the open source app wasn’t sending any sensitive information to third parties and didn’t pose a threat to users. The police report went further in clearing the Öppna Skolplattformen developers. ’All information that Öppna Skolplattformen has used is public information that the City of Stockholm voluntarily distributed,’ it said.”

D. J. Haraway, The companion species manifesto: Dogs, people, and significant otherness. Prickly Paradigm Press Chicago, 2003, vol. 1.

Something else useful about dogs? Make sure to read what you cite...

About Cats

F. Marciuliano, I Could Pee on This: And Other Poems by Cats, 1st ed. Chronicle Books, August 2015.

Vitally important topic for today’s debate, points being made:

- cats pee on things
- cats are picky
- if they pee on your things, yay?

T. Kane and M. Scher, “A dynamical explanation of the falling cat phenomenon,” International Journal of Solids and Structures, vol. 5, no. 7, pp. 663–670, 1969.

Falling cat experiments! Totally like 2 hinged boxes...